2016 SCWG GUIDELINES FOR MAIN AND FEEDER SQUAD AND JUNIORS IN MAIN AND FEEDER SQUAD

With these guidelines, SCWG aims to build a solid foundation for squad members and to instil discipline, empathy, commitment, integrity, respect for yourself, other squad members and to uphold values that are inherently good for personal character building, the development of consistent standards and a positive contribution to SCWG. SCWG reserves the right to make amendments to the guidelines and to make decisions outside of the guidelines if deemed necessary by extreme circumstances.

1. MAIN SQUAD

- Player must be a member of a golf club affiliated to SCGU.
- To be eligible for the Main Squad a player must have a handicap of 9 or less.

2. FEEDER SQUAD

- Player must be a member of a golf club affiliated to SCGU.
- To be eligible for the Feeder Squad a player can fall in the handicap range of 10-24 and any junior player with potential.

3. Players may be promoted or relegated by the Selection Committee between the Main and Feeder Squad as necessary.

4. SCWG TEAM SELECTION

- The team will be selected from the Squad in accordance with the 2016 SCWG Team Selection Criteria Policy for
 - The WGSA 72 Hole Teams Championship (3 players) at Middelburg, Mpumalanga from 22 – 25 May
 - WGSA Inter Provincial Tournament (4 players) Umhlali, KwaZulu-Natal from 3 – 7 October.
- The SCWG Team for the 72 Hole Team Event will be chosen after the SA Stroke Play in April 2016.
- The SCWG Team for the Inter Provincial Tournament will be announced during the first 10 days of September.

5. SQUAD PRACTICES FOR MAIN AND FEEDER SQUAD

- Monday squad practices are held at Kingswood Golf Estate and the Mossel Bay squad practice takes place on a Tuesday at Pinnacle Point.
- Squad practice dates will be distributed by e-mail to players once the dates have been confirmed for a period.
- The following rules are applicable with squad practices:
 - Attending a minimum of 3 organised practice sessions per month. Consideration will be given for cancelled squad practices by Squad Management and a decision by management on inclement weather.
- Timeous notification with a reason to either Val Holland if you are unable to attend. It is unacceptable to cancel squad practice in the morning on the day of a practice session. If a player is absent for more than 3 squad practices a month the reason for non-attendance must be submitted in writing to the President of SCWG.
- If a committed squad member cannot attend the Monday or Tuesday squad practices due to a prior fixed commitment; in full time employment or self-employed can contact Val Holland to make an arrangement for a private squad practice and the cost is for the players' account.
- Diligent practice of drills in your own time that have been given to you at squad practice.

8. CAPTURING OF SCORES ON THE HNA SYSTEM

- All acceptable 9 and 18 holes scores are to be captured for handicapping purposes. It is the player's responsibility to ensure that all her adjusted gross scores are entered after completed rounds of golf and especially after tournaments as not all scores are automatically entered by the tournament organizers after a tournament.
- As per the selection criteria point 4 for the squad, SCWG will be monitoring players' good governance of their handicaps and attention will be given to no-returns, penalty rounds and the variety of courses played.

9. THE NOMADS WGSA SA GIRLS CHAMPIONSHIP GUIDELINES FOR JUNIORS

- A SCWG Junior Order of Merit plus the SCWG Stroke Average Log is in place for the juniors to qualify for the annual Nomads WGSA SA Girls Championship held in June and for the Merit Award for the best Junior Player of the year. Girls aged 18 and younger qualify as juniors.
- The selection of the players for the SA Girls Championship will be done by the Selection Committee. A player can enter as an individual for the SA Girls Championship but this player will not be the responsibility of the SCWG chaperone and there will be no financial support from the SCWG to players who chooses to enter the championship as an individual player.
- The Selection Committee will use the SCWG Junior Order of Merit as a guideline for the selection of players. SCWG reserves the right to select one "wild card" player for the Nomads WGSA SA Girls Championship.
- The number of players allowed to participate per Union is allocated annually in May by WGSA.
